THE ASSOCIATION FOR ASIAN STUDIES

AAS is a scholarly, non-political, and non-profit professional association—the largest society of its kind in the world. Our membership includes scholars, educators, students, and professionals associated with research organizations, foundations, government service, media, business, museums, and similar organizations. One of our major goals is to facilitate contact and exchange of information between scholars and scholarly organizations interested in Asian studies.

ENJOY THE ADVANTAGES OF MEMBERSHIP

As a member, you will enjoy the fellowship and intellectual stimulation of your peers, as well as the following:

- Four issues annually of the Asian Studies Newsletter
- Four issues annually of the Journal of Asian Studies
- Discounts on all other AAS publications (including Education About Asia)
- Reduced registration rate at our Annual Meeting

PLAN NOW FOR THE 2005 ANNUAL MEETING

The 57th Annual Meeting will be held March 31–April 3, 2005, at the Hyatt Regency Hotel in Chicago. Join your colleagues for four days of panel discussions, exhibits, videos, special events, meetings, and fellowship.
