Antique Oriental Carpets

From the 17th to the Early 20th Century — E. Gans-Ruedin

Here are examples of fine Oriental carpets available on today's market, presented by an expert whose research has taken him to the places of carpet manufacture in search of the meaning of pattern motifs: with an authoritative history of the knotted carpet and 40 pages of color, 160 pages of b/w photographs. 482 pages $60.00

Eternal America — Yoshikazu Shirakawa

Spectacular photography of the American wilderness by an artist whose previous works on the Alps and the Himalayas have won international acclaim. In 84 pages of 8-color photographs and 80 pages of duotone photographs, the landscape is bathed in a new and awesome light: with a foreword by William O. Douglas and an essay on America's national parks by Sigurd F. Olson. 232 pages $60.00

Emperor Hirohito

The first photographic book in English to tell the story of the emperor revered by the Japanese: with 90 pages of color photos and text by the former Grand Chamberlain, the president of Tokyo University and the editors of Shukan Gendai which describes both the emperor's official role and his private life. 100 pages paperback $4.95

The Japan-China Phenomenon

Conflict or Compatibility? — Shuichi Kato

First-hand observations of mainland Chinese and Japanese life and politics by a controversial thinker who has taught at universities in North America, Japan and Europe. 103 pages $6.95

Hamada, Potter — Bernard Leach

The West's greatest potter writes about Shoji Hamada, the East's greatest potter and his friend for 55 years. Interviews, Hamada's articles and letters are woven into a flowing dialogue between the two men that sets forth Hamada's thought, craftsmanship and unique way of life: with 40 pages of color, 40 pages of b/w photographs of Hamada pots. 300 pages $50.00

Witness

Letters from War-Wasted Asia, 1945-46 — edited by O. Cary

These letters from young U.S. servicemen stationed in China, Japan and Korea immediately after World War II — some of whom have since established reputations as scholars in Asian studies — provide an unmatchably frank and moving account of the devastation, and one that has new meaning in the post-Vietnam era. 280 pages $12.50

Nov.

The Way of Karate: Beyond Technique — S. Egami

The author, adherent to the meditative practice of karate developed by master Gichin Funakoshi, provides a guide to the fundamentals of the art which discusses the value of flexibility in both body and spirit: with 250 step-by-step illustrations, for both beginner and advanced student. 190 pages $17.50

Jan.

The Dark Room — Junnosuke Yoshiyuki

This novel is about the life — more specifically about the sadomasochistic sex life — of a dispassionate, Japanese middle-aged writer. Through a series of encounters between the hero and various young women, the vivid, fast-moving narrative carries within it a delicate, oblique sense of tragedy. 200 pages $8.95

WALTER H. TOZER - Boise Univ. of Idaho

THE UNIVERSITY PRESS OF HAWAII

FORMOSA: Licensed Revolution and the Home Rule MOVEMENT, 1895–1945
by George H. Kerr

For two centuries the Formosan Chinese resisted authority imposed on them by the continental Chinese. Under Japanese rule, resistance became organized, but after restoration to China at the end of World War II the Formosans were bitterly disappointed when they failed to maintain gains made during the Japanese era. The author, long a close observer of Formosa while living there, is well qualified to comment on the island's history and prospects.

$12.50

FLOWERS OF FIRE: Twentieth Century Korean Stories
edited by Peter H. Lee

Twenty stories and a novella that illustrate the amazing development of literature in Korea despite fifty years of war, revolution, and turmoil. Many of these stories appear here for the first time in a Western language. "There is a great deal to praise in these Korean tales. They are well worth reading . . . ." (Orientations).

An East-West Center Book $12.00

THE SANDALWOOD MOUNTAINS: Readings and Stories of the Early Chinese in Hawaii
edited by Tin-Yuke Char

To increase awareness of the Chinese experience in Hawaii, the author has collected writings, letters, family histories, and genealogies from the older generations of Chinese immigrants to Hawaii. There are also comments on aspects of Chinese culture now disappearing from the scene.
